SUBSTANCE COLUMBIA VALLEY
RIESLING
$18.00

WHERE DOES IT COME FROM?
Urziger Wurzgarten in the Mosel…..um, we mean the Columbia Valley of Washington.

HOW WAS IT AGED?
Stainless Steel.

HOW DOES IT TASTE?
Like a sweet Georgia Peach. (Random useless fact - peaches are originally from China and are in the rose family). This intense, dry wine shows flavors of melon, citrus and apricot with great acidity. Wonder when people are going to start mistaking Washington Riesling for German? Well, stop wondering, because this is the wine that will do it. And, we won't ever use words like Grosses Gewachs, Erzeugerabfüllung or Trockenbeerenauslese. Promise. 136 points!

WHAT DO I EAT THIS WITH?
Anything. Everything. Especially delicious with smoked salmon or any foods seasoned with ginger, coriander, or caramelized onions.
