HOW DOES IT TASTE?

How does it taste? Not sure what to make of Roussanne? This is definitely a rare varietal on the wine store shelves. Think of Roussanne as classy Viognier. Viognier is more of a thick black makeup, cheap perfume, doing shots of Jack, wearing an alcohol monitoring ankle bracelet while on bail kinda girl. Roussanne is all class and polish, walking the red carpet in a designer frock. Sexy. Medium bodied, but crisp, with an explosive nose, but refined in the palate. Nose of peach, lemon candy, almost red strawberry fruits. Can we say Skittles? Some fatness from barrel, but not draped in vanilla sweetness. If you have a cHARD-ONnay for Chardonnay, Roussanne is definitely a satisfying choice.
